ROLE OF JUDGES

1. Judges listen carefully to every letter spoken by the speller to confirm whether the word is spelled correctly.
2. Judges will write down each letter exactly as the contestant utters it to compare it against the official master guide.
3. Judges carefully watch the speller's mouth movements to differentiate between similar-sounding letters (like "b" and "d" or "m" and "n") and account for speech impediments.
4. Judge signals the result by stating "CORRECT" or "INCORRECT" immediately after the participant has spelled the word.
5. For each participant the judges will tally the points accordingly.
6. If a word is missed or spelled incorrectly, they will provide the correct spelling before moving to the next speller.

NOTE: Judges are in complete control of the competition, upholding the rules, evaluating spelling accuracy, and rendering final decisions on all questions and appeals.
